York-Poquoson Sheriff's Office Makes Arrests in Victory Monument Vandalism

Sheriff J. D. "Danny" Diggs announced today that the Destruction of Public Property (Graffiti) Crime that occurred between 1-06-07 and 1-07-07 at several locations in Historic Yorktown has been solved.

Sheriff Diggs stated that this case was solved in part by the cooperation of caring citizens responding to the media coverage of this disgraceful defacement of a Historical Monument and other property belonging to the National Park Service and the County of York. The investigation revealed that these acts were not gang related.

Juvenile Petitions have been filed on two 17 year old Newport News youths. The two suspects will be charged with 2 counts each of Felony Destruction of Public Property. One charge is for Park Service Property and the other is for the York County owned property that was damaged.
